You Know What You Don't See? - Girlfriend

20-something Guy:

Look out in the street there.

You know what you don't see?

My car. Cuz I had to sell it to pay the lawyer I hired when I got busted for drunk driving.

Know what else you don't see? My girlfriend. Who decided that a guy with no car and no license and no money was no fun.

SFX: single music chord

ANNCR:

Cops .. are out there.

Cracking down on drunk driving, all across the country.

And they'll see you before you see them.

Driver sober, or get pulled over.

Paid for by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
